

GAINESVILLE.

of the Fire Ladders, considering the Adoption of a Regulation Uniform.

Several persons were severely censured for their conduct in the trial of the case of the State of Texas vs. the State of Texas.

Other Notes.

May 13.—The annual convention of the State Association of Texas assemblers of Knights of Pythias hall in this city at 8:00 o'clock and adjourned at 10:00 o'clock.

Second Vice-President W. R. Austin, Second Vice-President of Denton presided. On the failure to get transportation for a number of delegates, the association was a fine one of men and to do credit to the state of the "Lone Star State."

Committee on credentials made report, which was adopted.

Committee on the mayor, aldermen and police men to seats on the city council.

Committee on the city council, who were serving, were returning from the city of engineers, nearly two was by resolution extended to the convention. Mr. feelingly acknowledged the from A. A. Burek of Dallas setting forth that if the fire would meet in June, as he would not, the constitution required, he would not be able to attend.

It was ordered that the secretary be recognized from him as the treasurer of the association.

The committee on place of holding the next meeting reported in favor of Marshall, but as yet no action has been taken in the matter. The meeting will most probably not adjourn until Saturday, as they will be entertained to-morrow by a picnic and fish-ry by the Corsicana Park and Lake association.

Iceberg Chief.

This refrigerator is having a fine sale. Call and examine it at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

POLITICAL POINTS.

What the State Lecturer of the Farmers' Alliance Says About Politics.

Special to the Gazette.

DICHAIR, TEX., May 13.—Your reporter met Mr. S. O. Dawes, general traveling state lecturer of the Texas Farmers' alliance to-day soon after the Gazette reached here, and began at once to ply him with questions with reference to the article in today's Gazette headed "A Farmer," also the article headed "The People's Party."

Reporter: "What do you think about the movement of the People's party at Fort Worth?"

Mr. Dawes: "As to the Farmers' alliance members taking part in the convention as members of said organization, I will say the Farmers' alliance is not a political organization. Any alliance who, as an alliance, takes part in a political convention, violates its obligation and subjects the objects for which it was organized."

Reporter: "You say you have always stated when organizing alliances that the alliance was non-political. Was that upon instructions from the Grand State alliance?"

Mr. Dawes: "Yes, I always made it a point to fully instruct and impress upon members that we were non-political, and these were my special instructions. I also always told them that the obligations to be taken would in no way, shape, form or manner interfere with their belief, religiously, morally or politically."

Reporter: "What do you think of the Farmers' alliance and the Knights of Labor uniting. In your opinion will they ever go hand in hand?"

Dawes: "Never, for the very acts that are now transpiring tend to alienate the Farmers' alliance from the Knights of Labor, and that is, I mean to say the acts of the Knights of Labor in trying to drive the alliance into politics will drive the organizations further apart."

Reporter: "In your opinion can any penalty be visited upon an alliance for going into politics contrary to obligations?"

Dawes: "Yes, the penalty is a revocation of the charter of any and every alliance that participates in politics as an alliance."

Reporter: "What do you think the Grand State alliance will do in reference to the matter?"

Dawes: "I believe the Grand State alliance will stand true to the object for which it was created and revoke the charters of such sub-alliances. I believe it is the duty of farmers in the country to vote and vote right, not as members of the alliance, but as true men, and not let all the secret organizations of America swerve them from their purpose. I want to put myself upon record as strictly against the Farmers' alliance going into politics. It must not be done."

Iceberg Chief.

One car-load nearly disposed of since their arrival last Saturday. It is a splendid success. For sale at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

Powderly vs. Irons.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, May 13.—Apartments have been engaged at the Forest City hotel for delegates to the general convention of Knights of Labor, to be held here May 25. There will be 175 delegates. The meeting will be held in an obscure hall on Ontario street. A prominent member of the order says ever assembly in Ohio with but two exceptions will vote for Powderly and against Irons at the Richmond convention, which meets in October.

Kindling Wood.

The Fort Worth Grocer Co. will receive orders for a low loads of kindling wood at 50 cents per load delivered.

Glad to Get Back.

ST. LOUIS, MO., May 13.—The 250 employees of N. K. Fairbank & Co.'s lard and soap factory, branch of the Chicago establishment, have returned to work. The men struck on the 1st of the present month during the height of the eight-hour agitation, but their demands not having been granted they sought re-employment at the old schedule of wages and hours of labor.

Iceberg Chief.

Is a new invention, and is the finest refrigerator ever introduced to the public. Examine it at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

PARIS.

The City Council in Special Session assembled.

May 13.—The city council session last night, with all except Alderman Clements. The session was the first thing on the Alderman Fuller offered a resolution or do away with the Alderman back to the city council. Alderman discussion the question, and the eyes got four votes while the nays got three. It was thought by a good many that the free schools were in danger and the city council had better take charge of them. Several petitions were filed, accounts allowed and fines reported. The four following men were appointed judges of election for the coming year: First ward, A. D. Brook; Second ward, B. A. Walker; Third ward, Tom Broad; Fourth ward, F. J. Williams. A few other reports were heard and the council adjourned.

The Texas & Pacific ticket office of this place was burglarized night before last, but the agent, Mr. Braggins, says he has not missed anything yet but a suit of clothes.

The concert and supper given at the new Alkens building last night by the ladies, for the benefit of the old graveyard, was a grand success, and all had a good time.

Only a Few

Of those extremely cheap baby carriages left at Clarkson's. If you want one you had better purchase it at once.

KNIGHTS-TEMPLARS.

Officers Elected Yesterday at Corsicana, Special to the Gazette.

CORSICANA, TEX., May 13.—At the afternoon session to-day of the Grand Commandery of Knights-Templars the following officers were elected to serve the coming term: Sir Knight T. U. Lubback, R. E. commander; Sir Knight John A. Johnson, V. E. deputy grand commander; Sir Knight Charles Davis, E. grand general; Sir Knight John Martin, E. grand captain-general; Sir Knight J. C. Carpenter, E. grand prelate; Sir Knight T. P. Hawley, E. grand senior warden; Sir Knight D. M. Knepfey, E. grand junior warden; Sir Knight Henry Scherfflin, E. grand treasurer; Sir Knight Robert Brewster, E. grand recorder.

The committee on place of holding the next meeting reported in favor of Marshall, but as yet no action has been taken in the matter. The meeting will most probably not adjourn until Saturday, as they will be entertained to-morrow by a picnic and fish-ry by the Corsicana Park and Lake association.

Iceberg Chief.

This refrigerator is having a fine sale. Call and examine it at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

POLITICAL POINTS.

What the State Lecturer of the Farmers' Alliance Says About Politics.

Special to the Gazette.

DICHAIR, TEX., May 13.—Your reporter met Mr. S. O. Dawes, general traveling state lecturer of the Texas Farmers' alliance to-day soon after the Gazette reached here, and began at once to ply him with questions with reference to the article in today's Gazette headed "A Farmer," also the article headed "The People's Party."

Reporter: "What do you think about the movement of the People's party at Fort Worth?"

Mr. Dawes: "As to the Farmers' alliance members taking part in the convention as members of said organization, I will say the Farmers' alliance is not a political organization. Any alliance who, as an alliance, takes part in a political convention, violates its obligation and subjects the objects for which it was organized."

Reporter: "You say you have always stated when organizing alliances that the alliance was non-political. Was that upon instructions from the Grand State alliance?"

Mr. Dawes: "Yes, I always made it a point to fully instruct and impress upon members that we were non-political, and these were my special instructions. I also always told them that the obligations to be taken would in no way, shape, form or manner interfere with their belief, religiously, morally or politically."

Reporter: "What do you think of the Farmers' alliance and the Knights of Labor uniting. In your opinion will they ever go hand in hand?"

Dawes: "Never, for the very acts that are now transpiring tend to alienate the Farmers' alliance from the Knights of Labor, and that is, I mean to say the acts of the Knights of Labor in trying to drive the alliance into politics will drive the organizations further apart."

Reporter: "In your opinion can any penalty be visited upon an alliance for going into politics contrary to obligations?"

Dawes: "Yes, the penalty is a revocation of the charter of any and every alliance that participates in politics as an alliance."

Reporter: "What do you think the Grand State alliance will do in reference to the matter?"

Dawes: "I believe the Grand State alliance will stand true to the object for which it was created and revoke the charters of such sub-alliances. I believe it is the duty of farmers in the country to vote and vote right, not as members of the alliance, but as true men, and not let all the secret organizations of America swerve them from their purpose. I want to put myself upon record as strictly against the Farmers' alliance going into politics. It must not be done."

Iceberg Chief.

One car-load nearly disposed of since their arrival last Saturday. It is a splendid success. For sale at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

Powderly vs. Irons.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, May 13.—Apartments have been engaged at the Forest City hotel for delegates to the general convention of Knights of Labor, to be held here May 25. There will be 175 delegates. The meeting will be held in an obscure hall on Ontario street. A prominent member of the order says ever assembly in Ohio with but two exceptions will vote for Powderly and against Irons at the Richmond convention, which meets in October.

Kindling Wood.

The Fort Worth Grocer Co. will receive orders for a low loads of kindling wood at 50 cents per load delivered.

Glad to Get Back.

ST. LOUIS, MO., May 13.—The 250 employees of N. K. Fairbank & Co.'s lard and soap factory, branch of the Chicago establishment, have returned to work. The men struck on the 1st of the present month during the height of the eight-hour agitation, but their demands not having been granted they sought re-employment at the old schedule of wages and hours of labor.

Iceberg Chief.

Is a new invention, and is the finest refrigerator ever introduced to the public. Examine it at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

PARIS.

The City Council in Special Session assembled.

May 13.—The city council session last night, with all except Alderman Clements. The session was the first thing on the Alderman Fuller offered a resolution or do away with the Alderman back to the city council. Alderman discussion the question, and the eyes got four votes while the nays got three. It was thought by a good many that the free schools were in danger and the city council had better take charge of them. Several petitions were filed, accounts allowed and fines reported. The four following men were appointed judges of election for the coming year: First ward, A. D. Brook; Second ward, B. A. Walker; Third ward, Tom Broad; Fourth ward, F. J. Williams. A few other reports were heard and the council adjourned.

The Texas & Pacific ticket office of this place was burglarized night before last, but the agent, Mr. Braggins, says he has not missed anything yet but a suit of clothes.

The concert and supper given at the new Alkens building last night by the ladies, for the benefit of the old graveyard, was a grand success, and all had a good time.

Only a Few

Of those extremely cheap baby carriages left at Clarkson's. If you want one you had better purchase it at once.

KNIGHTS-TEMPLARS.

Officers Elected Yesterday at Corsicana, Special to the Gazette.

CORSICANA, TEX., May 13.—At the afternoon session to-day of the Grand Commandery of Knights-Templars the following officers were elected to serve the coming term: Sir Knight T. U. Lubback, R. E. commander; Sir Knight John A. Johnson, V. E. deputy grand commander; Sir Knight Charles Davis, E. grand general; Sir Knight John Martin, E. grand captain-general; Sir Knight J. C. Carpenter, E. grand prelate; Sir Knight T. P. Hawley, E. grand senior warden; Sir Knight D. M. Knepfey, E. grand junior warden; Sir Knight Henry Scherfflin, E. grand treasurer; Sir Knight Robert Brewster, E. grand recorder.

The committee on place of holding the next meeting reported in favor of Marshall, but as yet no action has been taken in the matter. The meeting will most probably not adjourn until Saturday, as they will be entertained to-morrow by a picnic and fish-ry by the Corsicana Park and Lake association.

Iceberg Chief.

This refrigerator is having a fine sale. Call and examine it at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

POLITICAL POINTS.

What the State Lecturer of the Farmers' Alliance Says About Politics.

Special to the Gazette.

DICHAIR, TEX., May 13.—Your reporter met Mr. S. O. Dawes, general traveling state lecturer of the Texas Farmers' alliance to-day soon after the Gazette reached here, and began at once to ply him with questions with reference to the article in today's Gazette headed "A Farmer," also the article headed "The People's Party."

Reporter: "What do you think about the movement of the People's party at Fort Worth?"

Mr. Dawes: "As to the Farmers' alliance members taking part in the convention as members of said organization, I will say the Farmers' alliance is not a political organization. Any alliance who, as an alliance, takes part in a political convention, violates its obligation and subjects the objects for which it was organized."

Reporter: "You say you have always stated when organizing alliances that the alliance was non-political. Was that upon instructions from the Grand State alliance?"

Mr. Dawes: "Yes, I always made it a point to fully instruct and impress upon members that we were non-political, and these were my special instructions. I also always told them that the obligations to be taken would in no way, shape, form or manner interfere with their belief, religiously, morally or politically."

Reporter: "What do you think of the Farmers' alliance and the Knights of Labor uniting. In your opinion will they ever go hand in hand?"

Dawes: "Never, for the very acts that are now transpiring tend to alienate the Farmers' alliance from the Knights of Labor, and that is, I mean to say the acts of the Knights of Labor in trying to drive the alliance into politics will drive the organizations further apart."

Reporter: "In your opinion can any penalty be visited upon an alliance for going into politics contrary to obligations?"

Dawes: "Yes, the penalty is a revocation of the charter of any and every alliance that participates in politics as an alliance."

Reporter: "What do you think the Grand State alliance will do in reference to the matter?"

Dawes: "I believe the Grand State alliance will stand true to the object for which it was created and revoke the charters of such sub-alliances. I believe it is the duty of farmers in the country to vote and vote right, not as members of the alliance, but as true men, and not let all the secret organizations of America swerve them from their purpose. I want to put myself upon record as strictly against the Farmers' alliance going into politics. It must not be done."

Iceberg Chief.

One car-load nearly disposed of since their arrival last Saturday. It is a splendid success. For sale at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

Powderly vs. Irons.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, May 13.—Apartments have been engaged at the Forest City hotel for delegates to the general convention of Knights of Labor, to be held here May 25. There will be 175 delegates. The meeting will be held in an obscure hall on Ontario street. A prominent member of the order says ever assembly in Ohio with but two exceptions will vote for Powderly and against Irons at the Richmond convention, which meets in October.

Kindling Wood.

The Fort Worth Grocer Co. will receive orders for a low loads of kindling wood at 50 cents per load delivered.

Glad to Get Back.

ST. LOUIS, MO., May 13.—The 250 employees of N. K. Fairbank & Co.'s lard and soap factory, branch of the Chicago establishment, have returned to work. The men struck on the 1st of the present month during the height of the eight-hour agitation, but their demands not having been granted they sought re-employment at the old schedule of wages and hours of labor.

Iceberg Chief.

Is a new invention, and is the finest refrigerator ever introduced to the public. Examine it at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

PARIS.

The City Council in Special Session assembled.

May 13.—The city council session last night, with all except Alderman Clements. The session was the first thing on the Alderman Fuller offered a resolution or do away with the Alderman back to the city council. Alderman discussion the question, and the eyes got four votes while the nays got three. It was thought by a good many that the free schools were in danger and the city council had better take charge of them. Several petitions were filed, accounts allowed and fines reported. The four following men were appointed judges of election for the coming year: First ward, A. D. Brook; Second ward, B. A. Walker; Third ward, Tom Broad; Fourth ward, F. J. Williams. A few other reports were heard and the council adjourned.

The Texas & Pacific ticket office of this place was burglarized night before last, but the agent, Mr. Braggins, says he has not missed anything yet but a suit of clothes.

The concert and supper given at the new Alkens building last night by the ladies, for the benefit of the old graveyard, was a grand success, and all had a good time.

Only a Few

Of those extremely cheap baby carriages left at Clarkson's. If you want one you had better purchase it at once.

KNIGHTS-TEMPLARS.

Officers Elected Yesterday at Corsicana, Special to the Gazette.

CORSICANA, TEX., May 13.—At the afternoon session to-day of the Grand Commandery of Knights-Templars the following officers were elected to serve the coming term: Sir Knight T. U. Lubback, R. E. commander; Sir Knight John A. Johnson, V. E. deputy grand commander; Sir Knight Charles Davis, E. grand general; Sir Knight John Martin, E. grand captain-general; Sir Knight J. C. Carpenter, E. grand prelate; Sir Knight T. P. Hawley, E. grand senior warden; Sir Knight D. M. Knepfey, E. grand junior warden; Sir Knight Henry Scherfflin, E. grand treasurer; Sir Knight Robert Brewster, E. grand recorder.

The committee on place of holding the next meeting reported in favor of Marshall, but as yet no action has been taken in the matter. The meeting will most probably not adjourn until Saturday, as they will be entertained to-morrow by a picnic and fish-ry by the Corsicana Park and Lake association.

Iceberg Chief.

This refrigerator is having a fine sale. Call and examine it at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

POLITICAL POINTS.

What the State Lecturer of the Farmers' Alliance Says About Politics.

Special to the Gazette.

DICHAIR, TEX., May 13.—Your reporter met Mr. S. O. Dawes, general traveling state lecturer of the Texas Farmers' alliance to-day soon after the Gazette reached here, and began at once to ply him with questions with reference to the article in today's Gazette headed "A Farmer," also the article headed "The People's Party."

Reporter: "What do you think about the movement of the People's party at Fort Worth?"

Mr. Dawes: "As to the Farmers' alliance members taking part in the convention as members of said organization, I will say the Farmers' alliance is not a political organization. Any alliance who, as an alliance, takes part in a political convention, violates its obligation and subjects the objects for which it was organized."

Reporter: "You say you have always stated when organizing alliances that the alliance was non-political. Was that upon instructions from the Grand State alliance?"

Mr. Dawes: "Yes, I always made it a point to fully instruct and impress upon members that we were non-political, and these were my special instructions. I also always told them that the obligations to be taken would in no way, shape, form or manner interfere with their belief, religiously, morally or politically."

Reporter: "What do you think of the Farmers' alliance and the Knights of Labor uniting. In your opinion will they ever go hand in hand?"

Dawes: "Never, for the very acts that are now transpiring tend to alienate the Farmers' alliance from the Knights of Labor, and that is, I mean to say the acts of the Knights of Labor in trying to drive the alliance into politics will drive the organizations further apart."

Reporter: "In your opinion can any penalty be visited upon an alliance for going into politics contrary to obligations?"

Dawes: "Yes, the penalty is a revocation of the charter of any and every alliance that participates in politics as an alliance."

Reporter: "What do you think the Grand State alliance will do in reference to the matter?"

Dawes: "I believe the Grand State alliance will stand true to the object for which it was created and revoke the charters of such sub-alliances. I believe it is the duty of farmers in the country to vote and vote right, not as members of the alliance, but as true men, and not let all the secret organizations of America swerve them from their purpose. I want to put myself upon record as strictly against the Farmers' alliance going into politics. It must not be done."

Iceberg Chief.

One car-load nearly disposed of since their arrival last Saturday. It is a splendid success. For sale at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

Powderly vs. Irons.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, May 13.—Apartments have been engaged at the Forest City hotel for delegates to the general convention of Knights of Labor, to be held here May 25. There will be 175 delegates. The meeting will be held in an obscure hall on Ontario street. A prominent member of the order says ever assembly in Ohio with but two exceptions will vote for Powderly and against Irons at the Richmond convention, which meets in October.

Kindling Wood.

The Fort Worth Grocer Co. will receive orders for a low loads of kindling wood at 50 cents per load delivered.

Glad to Get Back.

ST. LOUIS, MO., May 13.—The 250 employees of N. K. Fairbank & Co.'s lard and soap factory, branch of the Chicago establishment, have returned to work. The men struck on the 1st of the present month during the height of the eight-hour agitation, but their demands not having been granted they sought re-employment at the old schedule of wages and hours of labor.

Iceberg Chief.

Is a new invention, and is the finest refrigerator ever introduced to the public. Examine it at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

PARIS.

The City Council in Special Session assembled.

May 13.—The city council session last night, with all except Alderman Clements. The session was the first thing on the Alderman Fuller offered a resolution or do away with the Alderman back to the city council. Alderman discussion the question, and the eyes got four votes while the nays got three. It was thought by a good many that the free schools were in danger and the city council had better take charge of them. Several petitions were filed, accounts allowed and fines reported. The four following men were appointed judges of election for the coming year: First ward, A. D. Brook; Second ward, B. A. Walker; Third ward, Tom Broad; Fourth ward, F. J. Williams. A few other reports were heard and the council adjourned.

The Texas & Pacific ticket office of this place was burglarized night before last, but the agent, Mr. Braggins, says he has not missed anything yet but a suit of clothes.

The concert and supper given at the new Alkens building last night by the ladies, for the benefit of the old graveyard, was a grand success, and all had a good time.

Only a Few

Of those extremely cheap baby carriages left at Clarkson's. If you want one you had better purchase it at once.

KNIGHTS-TEMPLARS.

Officers Elected Yesterday at Corsicana, Special to the Gazette.

CORSICANA, TEX., May 13.—At the afternoon session to-day of the Grand Commandery of Knights-Templars the following officers were elected to serve the coming term: Sir Knight T. U. Lubback, R. E. commander; Sir Knight John A. Johnson, V. E. deputy grand commander; Sir Knight Charles Davis, E. grand general; Sir Knight John Martin, E. grand captain-general; Sir Knight J. C. Carpenter, E. grand prelate; Sir Knight T. P. Hawley, E. grand senior warden; Sir Knight D. M. Knepfey, E. grand junior warden; Sir Knight Henry Scherfflin, E. grand treasurer; Sir Knight Robert Brewster, E. grand recorder.

The committee on place of holding the next meeting reported in favor of Marshall, but as yet no action has been taken in the matter. The meeting will most probably not adjourn until Saturday, as they will be entertained to-morrow by a picnic and fish-ry by the Corsicana Park and Lake association.

Iceberg Chief.

This refrigerator is having a fine sale. Call and examine it at the Fort Worth China Co.'s.

POLITICAL POINTS.

What the State Lecturer of the Farmers' Alliance Says About Politics.

Special to the Gazette.

DICHAIR, TEX., May 13.—Your reporter met Mr. S. O. Dawes, general traveling state lecturer of the Texas Farmers' alliance to-day soon after the Gazette reached here, and began at once to ply him with questions with reference to the article in today's Gazette headed "A Farmer," also the article headed "The People's Party."

Reporter: "What do you think about the movement of the People's party at Fort Worth?"

Mr. Dawes: "As to the Farmers' alliance members taking part in the convention as members of said organization, I will say the Farmers' alliance is not a political organization. Any alliance who, as an alliance, takes part in a political convention, violates its obligation and subjects the objects for which it was organized."

</